Queen Rules

The Flying Arrow Saddle Club (FASC) expects its Queen representatives to present a positive image for our club and themselves at all times. By participating in this Queen contest, the contestant agrees to abide by the following rules whenever she is in a position to be associated with Flying Arrow Saddle Club.

1. Use of alcoholic beverages of any kind is prohibited.
2. Profane or offensive language is not allowed.
3. Abusive or mishandling of their horses is not to be tolerated.
4. Good Sportsmanship is expected at all times.
5. Use of tobacco products is prohibited.
6. Must be in good standing with FASC to show.

Violation of any of the above-mentioned items is cause for surrender of the Queen status from FASC. The violator will be required to return any and all prizes and awards associated with the Queen contest to Flying Arrow Saddle Club, including, but not restricted to, cash awards, crowns, tiaras, entry fees for the State Fair Contest, and any other prizes awarded. Failure to do so will result in loss of privilege to compete in future FASC shows. The contestant that is named queen or princess cannot win two (2) consecutive years in the same age bracket. The contestant that is named princess cannot win two (2) consecutive years. Flying Arrow takes great pride in our club and we want the best to represent us at the State Fair. We wish all participants the best of luck. We will all be cheering for you!
